Dear Sir:

The following amendments and remarks are offered in response to the Examiner's Action dated 03/20/98 in the parent application. Please amend the above-identified patent application as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

1. (Twice Amended) A telecommunications system comprising:

an originating circuit-switched network for providing originating signals in response to voice input,

an originating gateway computer for converting said originating signals into packets of digital data, a terminating gateway computer that accepts out of band signaling and converts [for converting] said digital packets into terminating signals, a terminating circuit-switched network for providing voice output in response to said terminating signals, and
